DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 06 April 2005 has been entered.

Summary of changes in this action

1. Examiner has found Applicant's remarks concerning the outstanding indefiniteness rejection to be persuasive. Thus, the previous rejection under 35 U.S.C. § 112, second paragraph, is hereby removed. However, new indefiniteness rejections were necessitated by the amendment.

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 31 March 2005 has been entered.

New Matter

The amendment filed 31 March 2005 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is the new language in claims 1-3 and 6-14 reciting that the "common node" is "coupled in an unswitched manner with and driven by the amplifier output".

Nowhere is the original specification or drawings seen to disclose this feature. On the contrary, Fig. 2 shows this connection as being switched.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 1-3, 6-14 and 29-31 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

The original specification fails to disclose the new cited limitation that the “common node” is “coupled in an unswitched manner with and driven by the amplifier output”, similarly as discussed above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 15 and 18-20 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 15, line 3, there is no support for the “output switch” always being in “an off state” as presently recited. In lines 7-8, it is not understood how “the output switch” can be maintained “in an on state during a specified time interval”, when line 3 states that its in “an off state”.

Claims 18-20 are rejected for the reasons discussed above with claim 15.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 15 and 18-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Pernyeszi (USPN 4,170, 740). Pernyeszi discloses, in Fig. 1, a circuit comprising: “a first stage (connected to 52)” having “an input switch (48)”; “a second stage (connected 54)” having “an output switch (50)”; and “a bootstrap module (rest of the circuit)”, all connected and operating similarly as recited by Applicant.

Examiner has fully considered Applicant’s remarks for the above rejection and has not found them to be persuasive. Applicant argues “Pernyeszi fails to disclose a first stage having an output feedback loop that includes an output switch”. However, on the contrary, switch 48 is clearly in a “feedback loop” via the common node and circuit 10. Applicant further remarks concerning Pernyeszi that “figure 1 generally shows output terminals 52 and 54 with no connections”. While this may be what is shown in the drawings, the specification expressly discloses circuit connected to each of the nodes 52 and 54. It would be more than reasonable to consider these elements an "input stage" and an "output stage". Therefore, the art rejection to claims 15 and 18-20 is hereby maintained.

Due the present new matter issues in claims 1-3 and 6-14, allowable subject matter therein cannot be determined.

Claims 4 and 5 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
